Guest Speaker: Denise Felder, Career Coach, Writer and Trainer

Our November meeting is for staff members who want to re-energize themselves and their work, are looking for new opportunities within their organizations, or who just want to feel better about their careers or their lives. We'll explore easy ways to increase your skills, expand your network, make your mark on your organization, and move forward in your career. Plus, address the three reactions your employer might have when you start to Know Yourself, Be Yourself and Express Yourself, and get tips for creating a win-win situation for you and your organization.
