

Twin Cities ARMA Chapter Spring Conference

April 9, 2019

MN Landscape Arboretum

3675 Arboretum Drive, Chaska, MN

The Information Governance Professional Certification – What is it all about?

Ray Cunningham raycunn@gmail.com

Session:

The information Governance Professional Certification was envisioned as a stepping stone in a career ladder for a broad range of information professionals. What is this certification about? Is this the next step in your career? In this session we will examine how the IGP came to ARMA, the IGP domains, the exam process and where the IGP program stands today.

Bio:

Raymond K. Cunningham, Jr. has been working in records management since 1980 as records manager at the University of Utah, Dartmouth College and the University of Illinois. He is a Certified Records Manager, Certified Archivist and a Fellow in Information Privacy. He is a consultant with Lorson Resources and teaches records management at document imaging in Trinidad and Tobago. Ray serves as the chair of the IGP exam committee and is currently in his second term as mayor of Homer Illinois.