The Impact of Data Protection Laws on your Records Retention Schedule

Guest Speaker: Tom Corey

The purpose of this presentation is to remove the fear and intimidation of domestic and global data protection laws and show how these laws and requirements are consistent with existing objectives of your records retention schedule and information governance policy.

Guest Speaker: Tom Corey, Esq., CRM, CIPP/US, CIPM

Tom serves as a director in the Information Governance practice within the advisory business at HBR Consulting (HBR). Tom focuses on domestic and international regulatory requirements in the field of records management, helping global corporations create and implement policies compliant with U.S. and international information governance laws.
